

These screens have aluminium frames finished in white polyester coating for ease of cleaning. There are options of having the screens hinged, at the top or sides, magnetic fixings and mid cross bars for adding strength to longer lengths.

The frame is 28mm wide and 9mm deep, mesh is available in grey or black. The components slot together easily and the mesh is held in place by the rubber gasket. The screens are available ready made or as kits.